- Expenses: $0
- Balance at end of January: $2032.33
- Members: 65

The treasurer's report was received.

The general meetings will be at the grille on Tuesdays. The April meeting will be on either the 14th or 21st. Jim McNair will be our speaker.

Committee Reports:

IT Committee: Dave King, Chair

- The email list will be switched over from gmail to Golf Genius.
- The information for the daily golf groups was added to the GACC website and the POACC website.
- We need a direct link from the POACC web page to our web page

Junior Golf Committee: Greg Pasco, Chair

- Dick Leach reported on meeting with Anthony Allman of the First Tee relative to the proposed Practice Facility at USC Aiken. Allman will not be asked to speak at our quarterly meeting.
- A suggestion was made that an event be held in July benefiting junior golf. This was tabled. It was decided to review all the Junior Golf Organizations in the area before deciding what type of support the GACC would provide

Tournament Committee: Richard Stamm, Chair

- The 2020 tournament schedule is just about set.
- The Par 3 Tournament is all set to go; Ken Sabol is running it again this year.

Golf Course Volunteer Work Group Committee: Bob Gilliland, Chair

- On February 10, 8 people spent 22.5 hours collecting debris between the 1st and 18th holes.
- Work days will be planned twice a month.

New Membership Committee: David Rasmussen, Chair

- We hope to provide mentors for new/prospective members to introduce them to the course and provide an orientation.
- The difference between this committee and the Membership Committee was discussed. Since both committees have similar objects, they will be merged into a single Membership committee.

Community Relations Committee: Mike Zak, Chair

- The relationship between the GACC and various women groups was discussed.

The meeting adjourned at 5:27.

- Income: Member dues $340
- Expenses: $0
- Balance at end of January: $2372.33
- Members: 99

The treasurer's report was received.

The April general meeting will be on the 14th at 2:45 in the grille. Jim McNair will be our speaker and the various lady organizations will be invited.

Committee Reports:

Tournament Committee: Richard Stamm, Chair

- GACC will have a section of the hall bulletin board on which tournament results and the schedule will be posted.
- The tournament schedule for the rest of 2020 is set.

Golf Course Volunteer Work Group Committee: Bob Gilliland, Chair

- 85 hours were spent cleaning up yard debris on 9, 16,17, and 18, resulting in 9 trailer loads being removed. Work days are scheduled on March 19 and 28 before Masters week.
- Don Leblanc was adopted the 16th hole, cleaning up pine cones, etc. He also will be repairing the cart path.

Membership and Orientation Committee: David Rasmussen, Chair

- The committee objectives are being worked.
- An effort will be made to contact previous members as to why they have not renewed for 2020.
- Dave served as a shadow for a potential new club member. Dave King, Dick Leach, and Ray Naramore volunteered for future visitors

Golf Relations Committee: Mike Zak, Chair

- An article for Cedar Creek living is in final audit.
- There will be regular articles for Up the Creek about tournaments and golf groups. These will go through Dave King.
- Dick and Mike met with the women 18 holers and meetings are scheduled with the women 9 holers and the Thursday coed scramble.
- Women must join GACC to play in our tournaments but may hold their own tournaments concurrent with ours. Richard Stamm will include this in the tournament rules.
- We are setting up a meeting with Jim McNair relating to his needs at the next general meeting, free golf with realtors, and updating the club web page.

IT Committee: Dave King, Chair

- Changing the domain name will cost $61 for three years and the current domain name still has one year remaining. We approved changing the name now.
- There should be a tournament application box at the Aiken Golf course because some of its members play in our tournaments.
- Golf genius is set up to send announcements for GACC. We need an announcement for the April general meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 5:30.

The treasurer's report was received.

Committee Reports:

Tournament Committee:

- Reviewed plans for upcoming tournaments at Mt. Vintage and Gordon Lakes.

Membership and Orientation Committee: David Rasmussen, Chair

- A letter to be provided to new members of the community was discussed.

Old Business

- The new logo looks good
 - Dave King will increase the outlining of the letters
 - Template will be put on the web page
- There was a discussion about the lack of mask use in the office and distancing prior to tournaments. Instead of a formal letter to Jim McNair, Dick Leach will contact him and raise concerns about safety and other issues.

New Business

- Dave Rasmusson moved and Ken Brace seconded that we buy target markers for the new putting green, to be used instead of making and moving holes. Passed unanimously.
- Discussed the need for fans and lights in the pavilion
- Discussed the proximity of the dumpsters to the pavilion and the need to control the ants and flies.

The meeting adjourned at 4:44.

GACC Board Meeting Minutes

13 October 2020

Golf Course Pavilion

The meeting was called to order by Dick Leach at 4:00

Present: Dick Leach, president; Ed Schneider, secretary; Jeff Kanc, treasurer; Richard Stamm, Dave Rasmusson, Mike and Lee Zak, Greg Pasco, Dean Spiro

Treasurer's Report: Jeff Kanc

- Balance at start of September: $2169.97
- Income: Par 3 tournament: $28
- Expenses: none
- Balance at end of September: $2210.03
- Members: 138

The treasurer's report was received.

Moved and passed: New members who join in October or later will have their membership fee carried over to the next year.

Minutes for 15 September were approved.

Committee Reports:

Tournaments: Richard Stamm, Chair

- Trying to find open dates for tournaments is difficult. Are we saturated with golf opportunities from CSRA Seniors, Aiken Seniors, residents, dog fight, etc.?
- People like community games similar to the Crystal Cup.

Membership: Dave Rasmusson, Chair

- Letter for new residents is on hold pending the move of the office and hiring of a new secretary.

Junior Golf: Dick Leach, President

- Fund raiser for 1st Tee will be on 9 November at the Reserve. The entry fee is $100.
- Moved by Dean Spiro, Seconded by Richard Stamm: The GACC will sponsor a 4-some for the fund raiser, with players drawn at random from the membership. Dean will draw the names and contact those chosen. Approved unanimously.

Old Business

Safety

- Mike D. has agreed to allow check-in by phone so that golfers do not have to enter the pro shop. Dick Leach will prepare a letter to the membership detailing the procedure.
- Lee Zak talked about disease transmission and the need to keep distance, to wash hand and keep them away from the face, and masks.

Hats

- Greg Pasco reported that 144 hats would cost $1338. Discussion revolved around whether the treasury had enough money to cover this and whether members should be given one or the hats should be offered for sale.
- Moved and passed: Greg can spend up to $500 to make an initial purchase.

The meeting adjourned at 5:05.
